

Tabyin Magazine Publishing Terms

1. Published research and studies do not necessarily express the opinion of the magazine.
2. When the research is accepted, the author undertakes to transfer the ownership copyrights of the research to the magazine, and not to publish it in any other magazine, except after obtaining written approval from the magazine's management. The magazine has the right to publish the research in a collective book; and if the researcher wants to publish his research in any paper, or electronic publishing medium, he must obtain prior written approval from the magazine's management.
3. The magazine is committed to inform the author of the approval to publish the research without modification, or according to specific modifications based on the comments of the evaluators, or apologizing for not publishing within a period not exceeding (30) days, except in the case of early writing (asking the author to write a sample to know his method), but the author is informed of that.
4. If the research is rejected, the magazine has the right to inform the author of the reasons for rejection, or not to inform him of that.
5. The arrangement of research (articles) within the magazine is subject to technical purposes, and has nothing to do with the status and fame of the author (researcher).
6. The magazine management pays a financial reward for each research published in the magazine, and informs him - in advance- of its value, or how the calculation is done.

7. Correspondence should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief: Dr. Ammar Abd al-Razzaq al-Sagheer at the following addresses:
